

ATTENDEE FAQ

Where and when is the festival?

The Edinburgh Yoga Festival 2021 is hosted at The Edinburgh Yoga Village based in Leith using venues Custom Lane and Custom House on Sept 11th with doors opening at 9am.

How can I get there?

Our wish is that you use sustainable travel options to get to the event. There are bus links that take you into Leith- see here for bus routes.

There is free parking located nearby but due to the Leith Market also the Tram Construction means that parking will be very limited.

Where can I buy a ticket?

Tickets are available for purchase through our website at www.edyogafest.co.uk.

What do I need to bring?

Due to Covid we ask that you bring your own yoga mats as we want everyone to be as safe and as comfortable as possible. When signing up to classes you will be advised what kit you need however you will be able to purchase mats, blocks and straps on the day.

Please also bring a facemask to wear in and around the venue unless you are exempt.

Can I bring my baby?

Yes you can bring your baby is the answer but please get in touch with us directly so we can talk options with you via email info@edyogafest.co.uk.

Will there be somewhere to get changed?

Sadly not. Due to Covid-19 restrictions we are unable to have changing rooms on site and do advise against getting changed in the toilets!

What are the food options?

They are the best! We Have the William and Johnston Cafe, Ohana Pops Stall and also the Leith Market is on too. Delightful!

How is the best way to support fundraising on the day?

We will have a raffle taking place and our merchandise sales all help support Edinburgh Community Yoga.
